

My House Men's Group Confidentiality Statement

Confidentiality and anonymity are essential for the My House Men's Group, and what is said during group stays in group. The meeting time and location of each group are confidential information that is only released to men who have been screened by Sam Meier, MA, LPC from the My House Initiative for the Archdiocese of Kansas City in Kansas. Please call Sam Meier at 913-647-0378 for any questions or concerns about confidentiality. If admitted to the group, all members are required to keep the information discussed during group confidential, and to not release the meeting times or locations. Sam Meier is a licensed professional counselor, who is mandated to report suspected instances of sexual abuse of a child. Any such disclosures made in group sessions will be reported in accordance with Kansas law and the child protection guidelines for the Archdiocese of Kansas City in Kansas.
