THE MASTER HAS NEED OF [YOU].

THE MASTER HAS NEED OF [YOU]

* This event is sponsored by the Johnson County, KCK, and Atchison Serra Clubs.

Join the Archdiocese of Kansas City in Kansas, the Vocation Office, and local Serra Clubs on Monday, August 2 at Iron Horse Golf Club in Leawood, KS for the inaugural Master's Cup Annual Golf Charity. The Master's Cup is an opportunity for discerners, seminarians, priests, religious, and lay faithful alike to come together for a one-of-a-kind golf outing designed to help foster and support vocations to the priesthood and consecrated religious life. All proceeds go to ease the financial constraints often associated with these vocational paths, through the establishment of the Heart to Heart Scholarship Fund.

WE NEED EACH OTHER

Acknowledging that we are made to find fulfillment and our true purpose only in relationship with God and others, The Master's Cup provides opportunities for all gathered to learn how God might be inviting them to deepen their commitment. Discerners will play golf alongside seminarians and priests, giving them the chance to learn more about the calling, as well as simply to learn whether or not any of our priests and seminarians are actually good at the game! Other attendees will have the opportunity to be paired with Serrans, learning more about their specific calling and mission as Serrans. Following 9 holes of golf, all will gather back at the new Vista 154 dining room for a catered lunch and short program consisting of a welcome by Fr. Dan Morris (Vocation Director), a 25-minute witness talk on answering God's call, and lastly, the introduction of the Heart to Heart Scholarship Fund, coupled with the presentation of the inaugural scholarship. With the option to attend separately from golf, the lunch program will begin at noon and conclude by 1:15 pm. Not only does The Master's Cup promise to make an impact on your life, Jesus Christ promises that every time we gather around him at table, he will empower and instruct us on how we can go forth to make the greatest impact in the lives of others as well!

OUR RELIGIOUS AND SEMINARIANS NEED YOUR SUPPORT

A generous response to God's call to pursue a religious vocation often carries with it financial concerns and considerations. Most religious orders do not accept applicants with college debt, and college-level Archdiocesan seminarians are expected to pay for almost half of their tuition. To help ease these constraints, the Catholic Foundation of Northeast Kansas has created the Heart to Heart Scholarship Fund, which annually awards scholarships based on need and merit.
