

RECORD RETENTION GUIDELINES

These record retention guidelines have been prepared to assist the Archdiocese and parishes in their responsibility to establish periodic and/or permanent control and appropriate preservations of records. The listing here is not definitive. Other records may need to be retained for an appropriate period of time. A well organized and all inclusive filing and record retention process is very important not only for current information, but for future reference and verification. Please note that any of the following items can be retained digitally. If the choice is made to retain records digitally, it is required that back up procedures that are consistent with Archdiocesan best practices are implemented.

A. Administrative Records – These records are to be kept permanently

B. Personnel Records – These records are to be kept permanently

A personnel file should be maintained for each active diocesan/parish employee. That file should contain the following:

- * Employee Application
- * Resume
- * Eligibility Verification Form (I-9)
- * Salary History
- * Sick & Vacation Leave Record
- * Performance evaluations
- * W-4 Form
- * Signed receipts for Sexual Abuse, Harassment, Code of Conduct policies

The following records are confidential and should be made available only to the diocesan/parish representative with a legitimate right to know, unless their disclosure is compelled by some legal action. In many states, employees have the right to inspect their own personnel files. Several items likely to be in a personnel file are specifically excluded from mandatory inspection:

- * Reference Letters
- * Test Documents
- * Personal information that could, if released, be an invasion of privacy.
- * Records relating to a pending legal claim that would be discoverable in court.
- * Disability Records
- * Employee Pension Plan Records
- * Service Records
- * Hazardous Exposure Records
- * Workers' Compensation Records
