

Book Title	Author Last Name	Author First Name(s)	ISBN	Copyright Year	Fiction / Non-Fiction	General Age Range	Publisher Name	Topic/Genre (e.g. miscarriage, gen dignity of life...)	Summary	Recommend Distribution?	Notes
God Gave Us Heaven (3-part)	Bergren	Lisa Tawn	978-0307-44629-9	2011	Fiction	3+	WaterBrook Press	God's Love	Little Cub's father explains to her that God created Heaven, the most wonderful place, because He loves us and never wants to be far from us.	Yes	Redundant, but sweet. This book discusses Heaven through simple language and lovable characters. Suitable for young readers with questions about Heaven!
God Gave Us Love (3-part)	Bergren	Lisa Tawn	978-0307-44629-9	2009	Fiction	3+	WaterBrook Press	Loving your neighbor	Grampa Bear tells Little Cub tall about God's love and why she should be patient, gentle, kind, and loving to family members and others, even when she does not like them very much.	Yes	Silly. Cute story, but again, makes for a lengthy read because of the lack of constructive thought. Young children greatly benefit from stories that make their imaginations turn on, and this book is not one of them.
God Gave Us The World (3-part)	Bergren	Lisa Tawn	978-0307-44629-9	2007	Fiction	3+	WaterBrook Press	Loving Your Neighbor	While visiting a museum, Mama Bear tells Little Cub about all the different kinds of bears living around the world, and that God created this big, diverse planet to be their home.	Maybe	The storyline borders on preachy, making for a tedious read. Also, there is a bit of redundancy due to the theme. However, the underlying echoe of accepting people who are different can be wholesome if explained properly. One critique to the authro could be that the story lacks illustrations of what is NOT morally acceptable when we are trying to include others who may think, look, or act differently.
God Is Great, God Is Good (coloring book)	Roos	Marcia & David			Nonfiction (coloring book)	5+	Office of Prolife Consultant (Archdiocese ofKCK)	God's Love	Coloring pages and captions to teach little ones about how much God loves them.	Yes	Cute coloring sheets. Kind of strays off the topic of "prolife", but sticks to the truths of creation and God's plan for mankind.
God Knows It's My Birthday	Burrin	Angela M.	978-1-59325-304-2	2017	Fiction	3+	Anno Domini Publshing	Dignity Of Life	Readers explore the life of Jesus through his ministry and even the small details like his birthday and how/where he was born. Readers learn that outward gifts only add to the greatest gift -life- that God gave humanity.	Yes	This book shows little ones that Life is a gift. It puts into words the truths that very life -whether born in poverty, riches, valor, or destitution- is wanted, chosen and loved by God.
God Loves Me More Than That	Mackall	Dandi Daley	978-1-4000-7316-0	2008	Fiction	all ages	WaterBrook Press	God's Love	Simple, rhyming text explores the extent of God's love for His people.	Yes	This storybook captures little ones' imaginations as it explores the magnitude of God's love for us -from the deepest depths of the ocean to the highest star in a midnight sky! Perfect for kiddos with questions, and boys and girls of all ages!
God's Garden	Morrison	Kevin	978-0-8091-6741-8	2009	Fiction/Nonfiction	8+	Ambassador Books	Losing Loved Ones	Parable explaining how losing loved ones is sad, but there is so much more to be gained after death because God has a plan for those who love Him and live according to His Word.	Maybe	The theme is wholesome but can be hard for young children to follow because there are so many analogies. Should be read alongside a parent or older child who can explain what it means as the child reads.
Horton Hears A Who	Seuss	Dr.	978-0-394-80078-3	1982	Fiction	all ages	Dr. Seuss Enterprises L.P.	Dignity Of Life	Kindly elephant tries to protect microscopic "Whos" from evil creatures who want to destroy them because they are "too small" to be people.	Yes	Perfect for young children and kids of all ages! Even Dr. Seuss -who refused to speak publicly about his political or personal stance on abortion- writes in this hilarious adventure of comedy and comradeship that a "person's a person, no matter how small".
If Jesus Came To My Home	Thomas	Joan G.	978-0-06-083942-0	1951	Fiction/Nonfiction	5-10	HarperCollins Publishers	Friendship With Jesus	Rhyming story about a little boy who imagines what it would be like to get visited by the Christ Child. The youngest tells how he would make Jesus feel at home during His visit and all the fun things they would do together.	Yes	Beautiful picture book. The gentle storyline accompanied by such delightful drawings makes readers come back for more again and again!
Miracle Of Life Coloring Book	Kizior	Laura & Mary		2017	Nonfiction/Coloring Books	5+	American Life League	Dignity Of Life	Coloring pages and captions to teach young children about God's greatest gift - Life.	Yes	Beautiful and wholesome coloring pages! These pictures bring the miracle of life to your child's heart in an incredible way.
On The Night You Were Born	Tillman	Nancy	978-1-4272-2646-4	2005	Fiction	0-8	Feiwei and Friends	Dignity Of Life	Gentle poetry surrounds the wonder and beauty of children; each one deserving and worthy of admiration and love.	Yes	Darling and whimsical. Beautifully illustrated, this book captures the wonder of a baby being born and the enchanting joy of each new life brought into this world.
Something Happened	Blanford	Cathy	978-0-9801987-1-3	2008		5+ (with sup	Phyllis	Miscarriage	Little boy and his parents experience the terrible misfortune of losing a child before birth. The reader walks with the little boy as he learns to process his grief with his parents' help.	Yes	*To be read with parental supervision. 'Something Happened' communicates the sorrow of losing a child -even when you never got to meet him/her in person. The illustrations are touching, the storyline is simple and sweet. This story teaches little ones that it is good and right to grieve when we lose someone we love, but that it is also important to keep living life with the ones we have as we heal.
The Beautiful Lady: The Story Of Our Lady Of Guadalupe	Mora	Pat	978-0-375-86838-2	2012	Historical Fiction	5+	Alfred A. Knopf	Marian Apparitions	Grandma Lupita tells her granddaughter, Rose, and Rose's friend, Terry, the stor of Our Lady Of Guadalupe, a miracle that occurred near Mexico City in 1531. Includes facts about the apparition and its influence.	Yes	Well written with gorgeous illustrations. Simple and concise storytelling, without losing the empowering grace of Our Lady's appearance.
The Oak Inside The Acorn	Lucado	Max	978-1-4003-1733-2	2006	Fiction	5-12	Thomas Nelson, Inc	Answering God's Call	A tiny acorn fulfills its destiny by becoming the tree God meant it to be, and then it watches the little girl who climbs its branches grow up as well.	Maybe	Unfortunately dull. Lucado's books are usually so entertaining, but this one fell flat.
Yes, I Am Adopted!	Zinniger	Sharlie	978-0-69225-658-9	2014	Fiction	3+	CreateSpace	Adoption	Little boy talks about how he is proud and happy to be a part of three families - his birth family, his adoptive family, and God's family. His family may be a little different than most people, but he is blessed to have so many people who love him!	Yes	Beautifully worded!! ZERO complaints!! This book takes the stigma out of adoption, and characterizes the beauty and selflessness birth mothers take on in order to give their child the life they deserve.
You Are Special	Lucado	Max	978-1-58134-219-2	1997	Fiction	3+	Crossway Books	Dignity Of Life	Small wooden creatures called "Wemmicks" compliment or degrade each other by sticking dots and stars to them based off of skills and looks. The Wemmick named Punchinello speaks with the woodcarver who teaches him that it does not matter what the other Wemmicks think. Punchinello is valued by the woodcarver, and that is all that matters because He created him.	Yes	Good for young children beginning to ask questions about people around them. "You Are Special" teaches kids how every person is special because God made each person uniquely themselves.
